An exceptionally fine set of the still indispensable standard reference on this fascinating series, accompanied by ten related volumes.

22 Diderot, Denis; Gillispie, Charles Coulston, Editor. A DIDEROT PICTORIAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF TRADES AND INDUSTRY: MANUFACTURING AND THE TECHNICAL ARTS IN PLATES SELECTED FROM "L'ENCYCLOPÉDIE, OU DICTIONNAIRE RAISONNÉ DES SCIENCES, DES ARTS ET DES MÉTIERS DE DENIS DIDEROT. 23 Dieffenbacher, Alfred. COUNTERFEIT GOLD COINS, NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES, FULLY ILLUSTRATED, INCLUDING FRANCE, GERMANY, GREAT BRITAIN, SWITZERLAND, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Montreal, 1963. Approximately 800 pages, with enlarged illustrations of corresponding genuine and counterfeit coins throughout. Quarto. Housed in two original blue leatherette binders. Very fine. (150.00)

Despite its age, this massive work is still useful in identifying older counterfeit American and world gold coins. Originally issued in one bulging binder, the two official binders present here greatly facilitate use. Alan Meghrig purchased two copies of the book and disposed of the contents of one, sans binder. More importantly, Alan also purchased the elusive 1966-1967 illustrated supplemental sheets and integrated them into the contents. By this time, Dieffenbacher had moved to Vienna and few persons went to the trouble and trouble to obtain them. Present here as well is an order form for the supplements, a discount schedule for multiple copies of the book, and several order forms for the book, one printed in German.

New York, 1984. 297, (1) pages, numerous illustrations, some in color. All three volumes bound as issued, with just jackets. Very fine to near new. (75.00)

Three useful numismatic dictionaries, each containing information not found in the other two. The dust jacket of the first, rather immodestly though with some justification, terms the work "the new landmark reference to the terms and concepts of world coins." Frey's classic reference, enhanced by Salton's glossary, remains indispensable, and Junge's work is self-described as "the first truly encyclopedic coin dictionary in the English language." Additionally, it provides biographies of major numismatic authors, engravers, and others.

25 Downs, T. Nelson. TRICKS WITH COINS. EMBRACING EVERY SLEIGHT AND SUBTLETY INVENTED AND KNOWN. Chicago, 1902. Blank leaf, frontispiece, 5, (1), (9)–164, (26) pages, 86 text illustrations. 16mo. Original pictorial gray cloth. Fine. (50.00)

Ex libris Mendel Peterson; ex June 11-12, 1982 Kolbe sale, lot 968. (Clam-Stefanelli 263): "The best of its kind in English."

Copy No. 205 of only 400 issued. A charming publication featuring, among the 233 items carefully described, illustrations of artistic nineteenth and early twentieth century numismatic bookplates, along with contemporary examples, among them an erotic numismatic ex libris.

31 Grove, Frank W. COINS OF MEXICO. Lawrence, 1981. (6), 474 pages, illustrated. Quarto. Green cloth, dust jacket. New. (50.00)

32 Head, Barclay V. HISTORIA NUMORUM: A MANUAL OF GREEK NUMISMATICS. NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION. Chicago, 1967 reprint of the 1911 edition. (5), viii lxxxviii. 966 pages, portrait of the author, tables, 399 text illustrations of coins. Original red cloth, gilt, dust jacket. Very fine/near new. (85.00)

One of the best reprints of the best edition of what remains the most comprehensive single volume reference work ever written on ancient Greek coins.

33 Hoberman, Gerald. EXPOSING STAMPS OF ANOTHER COIN. A BRIDGE BETWEEN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY AND THE CULTURE OF THE ANCIENT WORLD, THROUGH NUMISMATIC PHILATELY AND PHOTOGRAPHY. Cape Town. The South African Numismatic Society, in association with Spink & Son Ltd, London, 1993. (2), xi, (1), 34 pages, superbly illustrated in color. Narrow quarto. Original black cloth, black labels, gilt, card slipcase. New. (100.00)

"With the compliments slip of The South African Numismatic Society and George Fredrick Kolbe, the latter inscribed: 'To Alan Meghrig. A small token of appreciation from your friend, George Kolbe.' A very elusive publication, handsomely produced, devoted to postage stamps depicting coins. Alan Meghrig was deeply interested in numismatic photography during this period and, after purchasing the regular and special morocco bound editions of Hoberman's 1981 The Art of Coins and Their Photography, his penchant for completeness compelled him to obtain any work in which Hoberman and his photography were involved. Witness the coinage of South Africa work two lots down and various Hoberman volumes sold in Meghrig I. To obtain the present volume, Alan incessantly pestered me and I incessantly pestered Douglas Saville of Spink London, who published the 1981 Hoberman work. Saville incessantly pestered Hoberman and, after many months the volume at hand finally arrived in the mail, making all parties concerned quite happy."

34 Hull, Edward. THE WALL CHART OF WORLD HISTORY. WITH MAPS OF THE WORLD'S GREAT EMPIRES AND A COMPLETE GEOLOGICAL DIAGRAM OF THE EARTH. Clain-Stefanelli 13292. Sigler 297. A prominent citizen of Philadelphia, Breck (1771-1862), was the author of many historical addresses and dissertations. This essay on the paper currency of the Revolution is considered his most important work. It appears to be the earliest American numismatic book ever reprinted. Originally issued in 1843 by John C. Clark, the work was republished by A. C. Kline, an important early American coin collector and dealer (vide Attinelli page 60 and Joel Orosz's 1997 The Curious Case of The Coin Collectors Kline). Referring to the original 1843 work in his preface, Kline states: "This pamphlet has now become of such rarity that its purchase is an utter impossibility, while at the same time an almost universal desire to obtain everything connected with the History of Continental Money, has caused considerable inquiry to be made for it."

Original 1875 Crosby

109 Crosby, Sylvester S. THE EARLY COINS OF AMERICA; AND THE LAWS GOVERNING THEIR ISSUE. COMPRISING ALSO DESCRIPTIONS OF THE WASHINGTON PIECES, THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TOKENS, MANY PIECES OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN, OF THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES, AND THE FIRST PATTERNS OF THE UNITED STATES MINT. Boston: published by the author, 1875. (2), v, (5), (44)-381, (1) pages, 110 wood engravings in the text, 2 folding heliotype manuscript facsimiles, 10 fine heliotype plates of coins and tokens with original tissue guards. Quarto: 30 x 24 cm. Modern black half morocco, gilt, contents a bit foxed. Fine. (850.00) Ex June 11-12, 1982 Kolbe sale, lot 869. Clain-Stefanelli 121157: "The classic work on the early coinage." "It is truly the keystone to any library of American coinage." — Eric P. Newman. Arguably the best, and certainly the most enduring work on American numismatics ever written. Crosby began gathering information for his magnum opus in the late 1860s. Nominally the head of a committee of six appointed by the New England Numismatic and Archaeological Society to publish a work on early American coinage, he soon found himself alone in that pursuit. Not only was the research and composition of the work done almost entirely by Crosby, ultimately he also had to publish it. Only 350 copies were issued.

1878 Estes & Lauriat Crosby

110 Crosby, Sylvester S. THE EARLY COINS OF AMERICA; AND THE LAWS GOVERNING THEIR ISSUE. COMPRISING ALSO DESCRIPTIONS OF THE WASHINGTON PIECES, THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TOKENS, MANY PIECES OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN, OF THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES, AND THE FIRST PATTERNS OF THE UNITED STATES MINT. Boston: Estes & Lauriat, 1878. (2), v, (5), (11)-381, (1) pages, 110 wood engravings in the text, 2 folding heliotype manuscript facsimiles, 10 fine heliotype plates of coins and tokens, occasional interesting pencil annotations. Quarto: 30.5 x 24 cm. Original brown half morocco, spine decorated and lettered in gilt, marbled endsheets and page edges, extremities a bit worn, joints weak. Fine. (125.00)

Ex June 11-12, 1982 Kolbe sale, lot 870. The rare 1878 edition, estimated by Eric Newman to have comprised ten percent or less of the entire printing (i.e. thirty-five copies or less). A nice copy of the scarcest edition of this landmark work, particularly if it were to be carefully rebaked.

111 Crosby, Sylvester S. THE EARLY COINS OF AMERICA; AND THE LAWS GOVERNING THEIR ISSUE... Chicago: R. Green, 1945; Ann Arbor: The Token and Medal Society, 1965; New York: Burt Franklin, 1970; Lawrence: Quarterman Publications, Inc., 1974; Lawrence: Quarterman Publications, Inc., 1983; New York: Sanford J. Durst, 1983. Six different reprints. Tall quarto to small quarto. All in the original bindings, two with dust jackets (all issued). Very fine to as new. (250.00)

A nice set of the six reprints of this landmark work. The gilt spine lettering on the 1945 reprint is bright and fresh (on the great majority of copies the lettering is oxidized and dark). Well bound and printed on heavy paper, the 1983 Quarterman reprint is the best edition in terms of information, with an added bibliographical forward and appendix by Eric P. Newman.

112 Davis, Andrew McFarland. COLONIAL CURRENCY REPRINTS 1682-1751. New York: Burt Franklin reprint. Four volumes. xx, 471, [1], xii, 470; xix, (1), 496; xvi, 503, (1) pages, title facsimiles. Small quarto. Original matching blue cloth, gilt. Virtually as new. (125.00) A mine of information on the numismatic, financial and economic aspects of American colonial currency, comprised of virtually all the contemporary tracts on the topic.

Both editions of this significant if flawed work. For a brief period it was the main work though fatally compromised, some have claimed, by wildly varying valuations.

"Original Doughty owned by Geo. P. French, Rochester, N. Y. used as copy for Davis Reprint"

116 Doughty, Francis Worcester. THE CENTS OF THE UNITED STATES: A NUMISMATIC STUDY. EXTENSIVELY ILLUSTRATED FROM SELECTED SPECIMENS. New York: Scott Stamp and Coin Co., Ltd., 1890. (6), 115, (1) pages, 1 table, 4 lithographic plates of coins, lacking most of the text figures and the folding table. Disbound, many text illustrations cut out, contents loose, numerous marginal annotations throughout in pencil, printer's instructions in ink. Limp black leather-grained cloth folder, gilt-lettered "Doughty" at top, housing the book within an original mailing envelope from J. W. Stowell Printing Co., Federalburg, Md., addressed to Dr. H. A. Davis, 3421 Colfax A., Denver Colorado. (500.00)

Unique. Boldly inscribed in black ink at the top of a blank leaf preceding the title "George P. French, 15 Clifton St., Rochester, N. Y."; further inscribed in pencil below: "H.A. Davis, Denver, 9/11/33." Inscribed in pencil on the manila envelope: "Original Doughty owned by Geo. P. French, Rochester, N. Y. used as copy for Davis Reprint." The pencil annotations appear to record specimens in Dr. French's collection and include notes on condition, color (rosby and Hays numbers, interesting observations, notes on unique pieces, early "proof" specimens, unrecorded varieties, "semi-proofs," number of varieties [i.e., for 1794 "Have 63 varieties"], finest knowns, die varieties, etc. Most interesting, not only as a unique handwritten record of Dr. French's remarkable large cent collection, but for the insights and information it provides concerning this well-known reprint. Holland A. Davis included an additional title and preface on a leaf preceding his facsimile reprint, which we now know was produced by the official printer of The Numismatist. It has been alleged that, over the years, nefarious individuals have found up copies after removing the Davis title, and selling them as the original edition.

117 Doughty, Francis Worcester. THE CENTS OF THE UNITED STATES... Denver, 1934 Holland A. Davis reprint. Two copies: (6), 115, (1) pages, text illustrations, 2 tables, 4 plates of cents. 119 Durst, Sanford J. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE MAIL BID SALES #1-5. New York, 1978-1981. Original matching blue cloth, gilt, original printed paper or card covers and prices realized lists bound in throughout. Very fine/new. (200.00)
All Special Hardbound Editions.

120 Durst, Sanford J. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE MAIL BID SALES #1-13. New York, 1978-1986. All in the original printed paper or card covers, all but sales 7 & 11 with prices realized lists. Very fine. Also included are well over one hundred various Durst flyers, prospectuses, order forms, invoices, and correspondence, including letters concerning missing or unacceptable lots, etc. Present as well are seven 1977-1981 fixed price catalogues of new books in the original printed card covers and one series of nine brief self-covered price lists designated by the letters A through I. (150.00)

Contrary to the auction sales of most numismatic literature dealers, this series seems to diminish both in size and significance as it progresses. Early on, it reached its zenith with sales 2-4, the remarkable holdings of the Wadsworth Athenaeum. Occasional lots sold for multiples of estimate; other lots reportedly brought much more immediately after the sale. A great many lots sold for fractions of estimate, often for as low as $1.00 (some of these featured estimates as high as $150.00). Several lots of nineteenth century "bound books of numerous [auction] catalogues of the period" were described as being "interleaved with illustrations from various numismatic literature." This impenetrable terminology was employed to describe very rare early United States auction catalogues issued with photographic illustrations before it became customary to include lot numbers or captions on the plates. Needless to say, many purchasers in these auction sales were pleasantly surprised when their lots arrived in the post.

121 Dye, John S. DYF'S COIN ENCYCLOPEDIA: A COMPLETE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE COINS OF THE WORLD... AND COINS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA... Philadelphia: Bradley & Company, 1883. 6, 4, 7-1152, (8) pages, blank integral leaf, 2 double-page charts of United States coinage 1793-1882, over 1,500 text illustrations of coins. Original yellow-brown pictorial cloth, decoratively stamped in gilt and black, binding a bit worn, some discoloration on front flyleaves. Very good/near fine. (125.00)

A numismatic classic, published shortly after the author's death. The publishers termed it "a universal history, accurately illustrated of the coins of the world, precious metal resources, mintages, etc." The space given to American coins is impressive. Pages 115-256 are devoted to "British Colonial Coinage" and "English coins." The following chapter, entitled "American and Other Gold, and the Private Coinage of Gold in the United States," occupies pages 257-480 and the chapters from page 480 on are devoted to United States coins, including an appendix on the "History of the Recently Discovered Confederate Silver Dollars by T. Mason, Jr., Numismatic."

Also present is an undated duplicated 8.5 x 11 inch typescript, 30 leaves, devoted to the Red Book. Present as well are numerous letters and promotional flyers from Ed's, invoices, etc. (200.00)

Rarely offered. For years, Ed Lesniak was a major dealer and tireless promoter of R. J. Yeomans's A Guide Book of United States Coins. Although in the catalogue he notes a mailing list mailing 500 recipients, very few of these various publications appear to have survived, particularly as here in new condition.

139 Frossard, Ed(ouard). MONOGRAPH OF UNITED STATES CENTS AND HALF CENTS ISSUED BETWEEN THE YEARS 1793 AND 1857; TO WHICH IS ADDED A TABLE OF THE PRINCIPAL COINS, TOKENS, JETONS, MEDAILES, PATTERNS OF COINAGE AND WASHINGTON PIECES, GENERALLY CLASSIFIED UNDER THE HEAD OF COLONIAL COINS. A CONTRIBUTION TO THE NUMISMATIC HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Irvington: Published by the Author, 1879. 58 pages, blank leaf title printed in red and black, 9 fine heliotype plates, Sheldon numbers and Merritt sale numbers recorded on the plates in light pencil. Small quarto: 25 x 21 cm. Contemporary brown half calf gilt, top page edges gilt, front cover coming loose, else fine. (250.00)

One of only 300 copies printed. Having sold George W. Merritt's fine collection of large cents and half cents earlier in the year, Frossard decided to capitalize on the research expended in its cataloguing by separately publishing this work. The first eight plates, in fact, depict Merritt's collection, the final plate being devoted to colonial types. These plates, according to the preface, were "issued before a complete description was attempted; leading one to believe that they were prepared to accompany the catalogue of the January 3rd, 1879 Merritt sale. All of the plates therefore a copyright date of 1878. Frossard's is the first work to cover the entire range of large cents and half cents; as such it is deserving of landmark status. The ornate composition by W. T. R. Marvin, numismatic printer par excellence and the handsome heliotype illustrations add to its desirability.

An interesting proposal for new coinage designs, accompanied by an excellent essay on Hanchett and his designs, written by Raymond H. Williamson for Charles W. Foster. Both items appear to be rare. Williamson notes that "there are only approximately 100 of the Hanchett Papers known to be in existence today." Stars are employed on the reverses and eagles on the obverses of Hanchett's designs; the eagle looks right on gold coins and to the left on silver and minor denominations. "The spread of the eagle's wings is varied in relative proportion to the value of the coins; the greater the value the greater the stretch of wing." On the gold and silver pieces, the motto "Our trust is in God" appears.

Special Hardbound Edition. "An illustrated reference guide for BIE numismatic diebreak collectors." In the introduction, Associate Coin World Editor James G. Johnson wrote: "This handbook...is a culmination of the work of those who have gone before as pioneers. Its explanations are complete, so are the drawings of John Gedko of what was known up to the time of his death. The book is well organized...It is a MUST for anyone with any interest whatever in the field."

(Hartford): The Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, Incorporated, 1944 & circa 1944. 131-166; 48 pages, text illustrations, including Higley, Fugio, and Connecticut coppers. Two parts complete, both in the original printed card covers. Near fine. (75.00)
Both volumes inscribed in ink: "With the complements of the author Charles Rufus Harte." The writer was an engineer for The Connecticut Company and presented this detailed work at the sixtieth annual meeting of the Society. It was subsequently reprinted in the two parts present here. These are the first copies we recall ever having encountered. The numismatic text, though brief, is interesting and mostly devoted to The Higley Mine and its "bootleg currency," of which he notes: "Because of the purity of the copper of which they were made, the coins were in great demand by goldsmiths for alloying gold. Most of them were so used, and the few still in existence show more or less wear, due to the softness of their metal. At that, they are worth many times their weight in gold, a good specimen having today a value of several hundred dollars." Under authorities consulted, Harte cites Crosby, Dickinson (sic), Dye, Phelps, and Wroth, among many others. It is possible that one or more of the other obscure works cited in this work on Connecticut copper may contain information of numismatic import.

Ex Kenneth W. Lee Library, June 12-13, 1981 Kolbe sale, lot 514 @ $200. Claim Stefanelli 12524. A noted artist, Heaton lived 86 years. His interest in numismatics waned in later life, but, at the time this work was published, he was an avid coin collector. In the preface, he notes: "The writer, a few years since, after enriching his almost complete collection of silver and minor issues of the parent institution with all attainable varieties, became much interested in gathering United States coinage bearing the letters...commonly known as 'Mini Marks.' This pursuit, of course, led to publication of the book and to the popularity of coin collecting on this basis. Although it achieved wide distribution at the time, today, copies are scarce. Popularly known by its cover title, Mini Marks, this landmark work surely succeeded beyond the author's wildest dreams in creating a new and zealous interest in modern United States coinage."

Original maroon-brown cloth, gilt, top of spine a trifle worn, turn of the century inscription on front flyleaf. Fine. (75.00)

The complete title of this well-known work first published in 1872 is a large guide to the contents. The appearance of a new edition every year or two testifies to its popularity among coin collectors of the day, though the 1878 edition at hand is seldom encountered. It is at least the fourth and probably the final edition, each of which was issued with more plates than its predecessor.

"This text is probably best known for its illustrations of the U.S. Treasury Notes of 1842, 1843 and 1847. It is of inestimable value to those interested in the paper currency of the United States issued prior to the Civil War period, such as the interest bearing notes 1812-15, 1837-47 and 1857, 1860. No other book, to our knowledge, gives as readable an account of the history behind our paper money through the (tumultuous (and often confusing) Civil War period."

182 Knox, John Jay. A HISTORY OF BANKING IN THE UNITED STATES... ASSISTED BY A CORPS OF FINANCIAL WRITERS IN THE VARIOUS STATES. THE ENTIRE WORK CAREFULLY REVISED AND BROUGHT UP TO DATE BY BRADFORD RHODES, EDITOR OF THE BANKERS' MAGAZINE AND ELMER H. YOUNGMAN, ASSOCIATE EDITOR. New York, 1900. xxii, 880 pages, finely engraved frontispiece portrait, tables, text figures, finely engraved portrait plates. Later tan cloth, black leather label, gilt, label a bit worn. Fine. (100.00)

An important work, written in large part by the noted financier and comptroller of the currency and published posthumously. It features an excellent history of federal paper money and, especially, state bank issues.

183 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE FOR SALE. LIST # 2. Redondo Beach, July 1967. 4 mimeographed 8.5 x 11 inch sheets, stapled at upper left corner as issued, once folded for mailing, seven items marked "sold" in blue ink, one item priced in black ink. Very fine. (75.00)

Rarely offered. The second fixed price list issued by a fledgling numismatic bookseller. The first list was typed by Linda Kolbe, five copies at a time on special onion skin paper which was commercially available at the time, each gathering containing the requisite number of interleaved carbon sheets. Five groups of this first list were individually typed and twenty some odd copies in all were mailed to potential customers. Subsequent issues were typed on mimeograph stencils. Gradually increasing numbers of each issue were sent out though the mailing list did not grow beyond one or two hundred names until the 1970s. The list at hand appears to have been sent out after the initial mailing; among the items sold are copies of the 1904 and 1914 Chapman sales of the Mills and Gable collections, each listed at $12.50.

184 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE FOR SALE. LIST # 3. Redondo Beach, September 1967. 3 mimeographed 8.5 x 11 inch sheets, stapled at upper corner as issued, once folded for mailing, one price corrected in ink, a few check-marks. Very fine. (75.00)

185 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE LIST #6. Redondo Beach, 1968. 6 mimeographed 8.5 x 11 inch pages, stapled at upper corner as issued, once folded for mailing. Very fine. (75.00)

186 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE LIST #7. Redondo Beach, 1968. 3 mimeographed 8.5 x 11 inch leaves, stapled at upper left corner as issued, once folded for mailing, a few check-marks. Fine. (75.00)

188 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE: BOOKS, AUCTION CATALOGUES, PERIODICALS. LIST ELEVEN. Mission Viejo, Fall 1969. 23, (1) pages [including covers], illustrated, several hundred listings. 8.5 x 5.5 inches. Original printed deep yellow pictorial paper covers, a few annotations. Very fine. (50.00)

By far the best offering to that time, featuring standard works on United States coins and medals, several antiquarian numismatic books, etc.

189 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC BOOKS FOR SALE/NUMISMATIC PERIODICALS FOR SALE. LIST # (12). Mission Viejo, circa late 1973-early 1974. 4, 4 pages in duplicated typescript, 8.5 x 11 inches, stapled at upper left corner as issued, once folded for mailing, with numerous blue ink SOLD stamps, a few annotations. Fine. (75.00)

Inscribed in blue ink at head of first page: "Dear Mr. Altman, Good to hear from you! Sent list to your old address but it was returned. Yours sincerely, G. F. Kolbe." Issued after a brief interregnum, this list was extremely successful. In just a few years, interest in numismatic literature seemed to have grown greatly. So many items were sold after the initial mailing that lists sent out subsequently had relevant titles marked SOLD to minimize duplicate orders. Though this price list was composed with two titles, separately paginated, all were sent out with both parts stapled together.

190 Kolbe, G. Frederick. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE LIST # 13. Mission Viejo, 1974. 18 pages in duplicated typescript, 8.5 x 11 inches, stapled at upper left corner as issued, once folded for mailing, annotated. Fine. (75.00)

Postmarked September 4, 1974.

191 Kolbe, G./George Frederick. CATALOGUES ONE, II, III, IV, & V. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE... Mission Viejo, 1975-1982. Five fixed price catalogues, along with the second printing of the first. Six items in all, as issued in printed paper or card covers, occasional annotations in both copies of the first. Very fine. (75.00)

Catalogue One was initially issued with medium-stock cream card covers. Subsequently, it was reprinted with green card covers on stiff stock. In this version, items sold were so marked where the price had formerly appeared.

- 208 Kolbe, George Frederick. THE OUTSTANDING AMERICAN NUMISMATIC LIBRARY FORMED BY DENNIS MENDELSON, COMPRISING MAJOR WORKS ON UNITED STATES LARGE CENTS & AMERICAN AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES WITH PHOTOGRAPHIC PLATES. Long Beach: Auction 52, October 17, 1992. 111, (1), (2) pages, 222 lots, 3 color plates, 4 monochrome plates, prices realized list. Handsomely bound in levant black full morocco, gilt, original gilt-printed card covers bound in. New. (250.00)

An unusual work. In the introduction, the author writes: "I have been an intermittent collector of Large Cents, by Sheldon variety, for nearly twenty years. I have found that the determination of the Sheldon variety was tedious especially when purchasing coins at coin shows. Therefore, I developed a flow chart for each year, which could lead to a specific variety in a short period of time."
- 210 Kosoff, A. THE OUTSTANDING COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES LARGE CENTS FORMED BY MR. OSCAR J. PEARL, NEW YORK CITY. FOR SALE AT FIXED PRICES. New York: Numismatic Gallery, 1944. 24, xl pages, 479 listings, 16 plates of Pearl large cents, 7 other plates. Quarto. Original red cloth, black labels on spine and upper cover, lettered in gilt. Very fine/near new. (150.00)
The Special Hardbound Edition. Autographed in black ink on the front flyleaf by Oscar J. Pearl. Apparently a rare binding variant. It would appear that Kosoff bound up copies of this famous catalogue in small batches. At least two varieties of those bound in the prevailing orange cloth exist and through the years we have seen, as here, two or three examples in red cloth. After the move to California, Kosoff also bound a few copies in brown leatherette. To confuse matters further, at some point in time Frank Katen apparently purchased the remaining copies issued in printed card covers and, over the years, bound up copies in cloth, though without the characteristic black labels. The copy offered here is the first Pearl catalogue we recall ever having encountered signed by the collector.
- 211 Kosoff, A. PIONEER GOLD COINAGE OF THE WEST (THE KENYON V. PAINTER COLLECTION). No place of publication: Sol Kaplan, 1964. 24 pages, illustrated. Quarto. Original black cloth, gilt, original printed card covers bound in, octagonal "window" in the front cloth cover positioned to reveal the obverse of the $50 gold slug depicted on the first page, it in turn being visible through the die-cut "window" in the front card cover. Near new. (75.00)
The Special Hardbound Edition. LISTER MERKIN impressed in gilt at the base of the upper cover; inscribed in ink: "9/26/64, Best Wishes, Sol Kaplan, Bosaliaan historical account, apparently issued to promote the sale of Painter's remarkable collection.

Original processed grained brown full leather, gilt, faux marbled endsheets. New. (250.00)
Special Leatherbound Edition. Inscribed in black ink on first title below and to the right of the author's name: To Alan Meghrig, Best Wishes, Dave, 10/9/91; along with "7/14/93" in the lower right corner. Included is Alan Meghrig's copy of his order for the books; a handwritten 7/14/93 note from the author: "I bought for the order of a dime (10¢) to be a while before these are prepared... perhaps a month or month and a half. I just want to gather all the order and then will send them to the binder," and the 10/20/91 $142.00 invoice for the books. Assuming that "7/14/93" means that the number three of only seven Barber Trilogy copies specially bound, the author must have been strictly disappointed and the confirmed issue present here a true gem.

Mason's Coin and Stamp Collectors' Magazine 1867-1870

Contemporary brown half morocco, gilt, binding a bit worn but sound, Mason's Photographic Gallery No. 1 plate margins trimmed closely but complete and unfolded. Fine. (400.00)

Ex Library of Dr. Rob. Morris, with his printed ticket, ex June 5, 1989 Kolbe sale, lot 209. The annotations, mostly relating to serialized articles, are presumably in Morris's hand. Robert Morris was an enterprising, pioneer American numismatist, the first "to introduce the science of ancient Numismatics into American study." The famous photograph, entitled Mason's Photographic Gallery of the Coin Collectors of the United States No. 1, provides us with the portraits of forty-eight major collectors of the day; for many of them it is their only known likeness. There seems to be a certain sadness and resignation in Joseph Mickley's eyes, suggesting that he had not yet recovered from the theft of his coin collection. Dr. Dickeson's visage mirrors the one found in his famous work on American coins, though the few additional years seem to show; Ebenezer Mason appears proud, assembling this marvelous rogues' gallery certainly entitled to be so; a young John Haseltine's "mutton chops" dominate; and "A. C." Kline is clearly of the male persuasion, though his sideburns are modest by comparison to those of Captain John.

An interesting, informative and well-illustrated essay, being the upscale version, in slightly larger format, of American Numismatic Society Numismatic Notes and Monographs No. 104.

- 240 Mead Paper. A VERY FINE EMBOSSED OVERSIZE REPRODUCTION OF AN 1964 L INDIAN HEAD CENT. Dayton: Mead Paper, Printing and Writing Paper Division, circa 1980. A most attractive numismatic poster, issued to promote the firm's paper products. 70 x 52 cm. 38 x 25 inches. Text and a half-tone illustration of the cent at actual size printed at the bottom in brown ink on substantial cream stock, comprising promotional data and descriptive text on the "Indian head cent courtesy of Cline's Rare Coins." The most attractive 17 inch diameter coin illustration is reproduced entirely in blind. Staple marks at extreme outer margins, else as new. (50.00)

An ideal wall decoration for the advanced Indian Cent collector. A gift from Rayline Press, printer of Kolbe catalogues at the time, it graced the wall of the bookseller's Mission Viejo office. Alan Meghrih, or "Jaws," as he was affectionately called by the staff, saw it on the wall and had to have it. His characteristic persistence was obviously fruitful (unbeknownst to Alan at the time, whenever he was spotted entering the office his arrival was heralded by humming the shark music from the Steven Spielberg movie).

As a cabinet, this work has many useful numismatic applications but the fascination for American coins is by far the most interesting. Historical facts and unsifted, dated rumor are interwoven indiscriminately into entertaining, if not always accurate accounts. For example, a very long story is given to explanation of the rarity

Present here are the first thirteen editions issued in printed card covers; the September 24, 1983 sample issue on loose 8.5 x 11 inch sheets; the October 31, 1983 Original Advance Release on computer paper; three unnumbered or interim issues in 8.5 x 11 inch format, stapled at upper left corners; two 1983 price lists; and various enclosures. An influential publication, comprising an important source of large cent pricing information for the period covered.

280 Sanders, W. C. REVISED DOUGHTY LARGE CENTS...WITH PLATES OF NEWCOMB (1803). CLAPP. No place of issue, 1940s. Above title and date of issue derived from a handwritten note on the front cover. Mimeographed typescript. 45, 22 (2) leaves. 8 x 10.5 inches. Housed in an old green report binder. Also present are two photographic reproductions of 1803 cents and one depicting 1798 & 1799 reverses, along with several sheets of reproduced text and plates relating to the topic. (250.00)

Most interesting. Doughty's classic 1890 work covers in depth only the early issues; minimal information on the later dates is contained in two tables at the end of his book. While William C. Sanders' revision essentially paraphrases and simplifies Doughty's coverage of 1793-1814 cents, from 1816 to 1857 he makes a quantum leap. In the last 24 leaves of text, Sanders provides diagnostic points for each and every variety, a list of additional varieties, and rarity ratings for each variety enumerated.

281 Smith, A. M. PICTORIAL ADVERTISING BROADSHEET FOR "COIN AND COINAGE OF THE U. S. MINT, PHILADELPHIA..." Philadelphia, circa 1881. Single sheet: 48.5 x 30.5 cm. Printed on both sides, with attractive engravings of colonial coins, early federal issues, etc. Horizontal and vertical fold-marks, some separation at folds but no loss. A clean copy, suitable for framing. (100.00)

Rare; only the third example, and the finest, we recall ever having handled. On one side is the heading "Rare U. S. Coins," followed by a column of descriptive text. The remaining two-thirds of the page includes a "Table of Contents" for the book and coins illustrations from the book. The other side mainly comprises illustrations of Rare and Valuable Coins for which a high premium is paid. At the bottom, copies of the 108 page book with over 200 woodcuts are offered. In paper covers 40 cents; on fine finish heavy paper 50 cents; the same bound in cloth 75 cents; on finest tint plate paper, bound in half morocco, $1.00.

282 Smith, A. M. VISITOR'S GUIDE AND HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES MINT, PHILADELPHIA. PA. ELABORATELY ILLUSTRATING THE DEPARTMENT, THE BUSINESS ROUTINE, ALL SCIENTIFIC AND MECHANICAL OPERATIONS IN EVERY STAGE OF THE WORK, THE WONDERFUL MACHINERY, RARE COINS, RELICS, AND CURIOS IN THE CABINET... Philadelphia, 1885. (2), 175, (1) pages, engraved and printed titles, finely engraved portrait of Daniel Fox, text illustrations throughout. 23 x 15.5 cm. Original maroon flexible full leather, cover decorated and lettered in gilt, incorporating on the upper cover Smith's famous and delightful engraved device of a well-nourished Miss Liberty astride an eagle in flight, with a balance in one hand, dispensing coins from the horn of plenty with the other in all page edges gilt, spine and corners chipped and worn, binding all page edges gilt, spine and corners chipped and worn, other all page edges gilt, spine and corners chipped and worn, binding in need of restoration. (200.00)

The Deluxe Full Leather Edition. Ex June 11-12, 1982 Kolbe sale, lot 822. Rare. The last such example we sold was fifteen years ago. The Visitor's Guide is a completely rewritten and expanded version of Smith's earlier Mint guides, this copy being the variety featuring "over 1600 fine engravings." Probably the first issue; at least two other varieties exist. Though seemingly worthy competition to the ubiquitous Evans mint histories, it was the first and only edition in this format. While Evans wears many of the engravings present here depicting minting activities, a number included here are inscribed Copyright secured 1885, which precluded their appropriation, making this volume their only source.

283 Smith, A. M. ILLUSTRATED ENCYCLOPEDIA OF GOLD AND SILVER COINS OF THE WORLD; ILLUSTRATING THE MODERN, ANCIENT, CURRENT AND CURIOS, FROM A. D. 1885 BACK TO B. C. 700... Philadelphia, 1886. 511, (1) pages, finely engraved frontispiece portrait of the author, lithographic title preceding the printed title, numerous text illustrations. Original green cloth, upper cover decoratively stamped in black, spine lettered in gilt. Generally fine. (75.00)
Ex libris Arthur W. Hall, with his 1923 invoice for the book tipped in. A nineteenth century American numismatic bestseller, issued in a wide variety of publisher's cloth bindings, most incorporating on the upper cover, as here, Smith's delightfully engraved device of a buxom Miss Liberty astride an eagle in flight, with a balance in one hand, dispensing coins from the horn of plenty from the other. Primarily a wine merchant, Smith (born Anders Madsen Schmidt in Denmark) became interested in numismatics in the mid-1870s and published several works on coins before this, his numismatic magnum opus, appeared. It may have been written to compete with John S. Dye's popular 1883 Coin Encyclopedia, and, judging from current availability, was at least as successful. A delightful feature of this work is the extensive use of reproductions of numismatic frontispieces and vignettes taken from early numismatic publications.

284 Smith, A. M. ILLUSTRATED ENCYCLOPEDIA OF GOLD AND SILVER COINS OF THE WORLD; ILLUSTRATING THE MODERN, ANCIENT, CURRENT AND CURIOS, FROM A. D. 1885 BACK TO B. C. 700... Philadelphia, 1886. 511, (1) pages, finely engraved frontispiece portrait of the author, lithographic title preceding the printed title, numerous text illustrations. Original dark gray-brown cloth, upper cover decoratively stamped in gilt and black, spine lettered in gilt. Generally fine. (75.00)

Red ink stamp at top of title: "Vint. T. Nolte, 14, 12, 1982 Golden Gate Ave. S.E. Ariz. Building 10000 with an increasing price value."

285 Snowden, James Ross. A DESCRIPTION OF ANCIENT AND MODERN COINS, IN THE CABINET COLLECTION AT THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1861. xix, (2), 22-412 pages, frontispiece medallion plate engraved by the medal ruling machine, text illustrations, folding statement, 25 plates of coins printed in relief with metallic tints, on a dark brown background. Original blindstamped brown cloth, title and author stamped in gilt on the upper spine and the publisher's name at the base, spine a bit worn, a newspaper clipping and hands written note laid in. Near fine. (50.00)

Inscribed on front flyleaf: "Presented to [James R.] Snowden by his brother [Charles Ross Snowden] 1864." Aided to the front paratext are three interesting printed labels: 1) a 5 x 3.5 inch list of "Rare American Coins" incorporating a colorized large cent dates with rarity ratings and prices of half cents for which C. C. Snowden "will pay $1000 per piece." 2) a 2.5 x 4 inch list of "United States Coins" and "Half Dollars, listing serial numbers and the gift list of 1864. 3) a 10 x 10 cm. "United States Coins" list. The second front flyleaf features the serial number of John T. Jones, V. N. A. member No. 1, Class, Serially 17-45, an above-average example of the first complete set of Negro 50 cents in the Mint's collection with an interesting upside New Jersey provenance. Prepared and arranged for the Department of James Ross Snowden, the work was compiled by George Hall with the assistance of William T. De Bore, assistant assayer and curator of the cabinet at the time. It is widely known by its spine title: The Mint Manual of Current Coinage. The attractive embossed coin plates represent the first extensive American use of this novel and attractive method of illustration.

Bressett was Managing Editor, and Neil Shafer was Associate Editor. Beyond these stalwarts, contributors included Q. David Bowers, Walter Breen, Zander Klawans, Eric Newman, R. W. Alexander Balmanno's Personal 1877 & 1885 Auction Sale Catalogues?

451 Cogan, Edward. CATALOGUE OF A VERY VALUABLE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN, ENGLISH, CANADIAN AND FOREIGN SILVER AND COPPER COINS AND MEDALS... September 17-18, 1877. Priced in ink, with totals brought forward at the head and foot of each page. (bound with) Low, Lyman H. THE BALMANNO COLLECTION. CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF AMERICAN AND FOREIGN COINS AND MEDALS... June 10-11, 1885. Ruled in red and priced in black ink. Contemporary brown half morocco, gilt, marbled endsheets, lacking the spine, covers detached, first catalogue once folded, internally fine. (250.00) "Alex. Balmanno" is decoratively written in pencil at the head of the first title, identifying him as the owner of the collection. Three lots have been added to the catalogue in ink manuscript; one lot, 435, has been crossed through; a few typographical corrections have been made in pencil and the proceeds of each day's sale have been added together at the end, totaling $1,625.98. Apparently, the "French Imperial Coins, &c., Silver" comprising lots 790-811, were not part of Balmanno's collection and are not priced. The proceeds of the Low sale total $3,550.86, perhaps $108.30, the total of eleven lots of British coins listed in pencil on the last page. Some of these are annotated in the catalogue, citing results for similar pieces on the Mckley and other prominent collections. Presumably, these pieces were bought back by Balmanno, though some annotated lots apparently brought a price sufficiently high that he was content to part with them. The most expensive "buy back" was a 1658 "Oliver Cromwell as Protector of the Republic" crown @ $25.50. Given its attributes, the conclusion seems inescapable that the volume at hand belonged to Balmanno. Research by John Kraljovich, published in the November 19, 2006 E-Sylum, provides a good deal of biographical information on this important nineteenth century American numismatist, who was "long an honorary member of the American Numismatic and Archaeological Society and it is said that his collection of Greek and Roman coins was the most valuable ever gotten together in this country. It was purchased by the British Museum. A portion of Balmanno's collection was sold in 1873, and a fourth sale was held in 1903 the year following his death.

The 1916 American Numismatic Convention was held at the Peabody Institute in Baltimore from September 23rd to the 27th. Elder may have been the first to schedule the nowadays prolific series of unofficial auction sales surrounding the American numismatic bellwether, although current practitioners usually schedule their sales prior to the convention.

526 Haseltine, John W. COIN SALE. January 13-15, 1874. Priced in pencil, occasional annotations. Original wrappers a bit worn. Very good/near fine. (35.00)

Adams B-1 "Story of discovery of confederate cent." The "very fine; excessively rare" Confederate Cent sold for $16.12. Haseltine devotes thirteen lines in small type to the tale of its origins, concluding rather defensively: "I have been some what particular in giving the facts about this piece, as there are persons who always sneer at and doubt anything new and interesting that is discovered by other than themselves." The annotator of the present catalogue has succinctly expressed his opinion on the matter in pencil following Haseltine's story: "Bah!" The 1840-1848 proof half cents have also been deemed "restrikes" by the annotator.

527 Haseltine, John W. STABLEIN COLLECTION. January 26-27, 1882. 48 pages, 1311 lots. Prices realized list, comprising pages (49)-52, bound in. Original wrappers a bit worn and soiled, unopened. Very good. (35.00)

Clearly a special post-sale edition of the catalogue. "Printed Prices" is written in pencil on the upper cover, apparently by David Proskoy. We do not recall ever having encountered this version of the catalogue.

528 Haseltine, John W. COLLECTION OF MEDALS OF MR. ISAAC I. WOOD... July 5-7, 1882. Lots 8-376 priced in pencil with buyers' initials or names, occasional other notes here and later in the catalogue. Original wrappers a trifle worn and discolored. Fine. (50.00)

Original wrappers, foredges a trifle stained. Very good or better. (50.00) David Prosky's sales room copy, with "Private" and pencil monogram "DP" on upper cover. Adams B: "90 varieties of hard times tokens. Among the outstanding numismatic publications in the sale, a Crosby in wrappers sold for $7.50; a Woodburytype plate brought all of 27¢; Lee's "Out of print and very rare" work on Confederate States currency with 10 photographic plates realized an impressive $19.00, to Samp(son); a "Very rare" 1881 Andrews sold for 75¢; and Hart's 1851 work on colonial paper "illustrated with 7 original notes," was purchased by Scott for $2.25.

530 Haseltine, John W. THE COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES GOLD FORMED BY WM. J. JENKS... June 6, 1883. Original wrappers. Very good. (35.00) Adams A: "Excellent U. S. gold including 1815 $5, complete $3, assembled by Phineas Adams. Near complete 1-¢ proofs." Haseltine writes in part: "The edition is limited to 100 copies, 40 of which, bound in cloth, have two heliotype plates of the very fine half dimes, etc. recently sold in Mr. Newlin's auction sale of coins."

535 Haseltine, John W. SEVENTY-FIFTH SALE. January 11-12, 1884. Original wrappers a bit discolored, once folded. Near fine. (125.00) This catalogue was apparently sent out late, as suggested by a printed slip included here, reading: "Owing to the short time which intended buyers at this sale have to send in their orders, they will please address me as follows: John W. Haseltine, 10 [17] To [corrected in ink to "Care"] Bangs & Co., 739 and 741 Broadway New York City."

543 Henkels, Stan. V. CATALOGUE NO. 747. LARGE AND RARE COLLECTION OF COLONIAL AND CONTINENTAL CURRENCY AND RARE AND SCARCE LOTTERY TICKETS. Philadelphia: catalogue compiled and sale conducted by Stan. V. Henkels at the Book Auction Rooms of Thomas Birch's Sons, October 17, 1895. 15, (1) pages, 276 lots. Original printed tan card covers, bottom margins a trifle chipped. Fine. (50.00)

Not in Cengerke, nor the American Numismatic Society Auction Catalogue. Though rather tersely catalogued, an important collection. Lots 1-223 feature colonial and continental paper money; the premier lot containing a "Complete" collection of Continental notes, comprising every variety and denomination issued by the Continental Congress in very fine condition. It was formerly owned by the late Robert Coulton Davis, who figured no points or money to make it as fine as possible. For whatever reason, it seems that not too many of the colonial paper currency have sometimes chipped but not by numismatic bibliographers, even if it missed a few.

(1) This auction, issued several months after Mickley's death, Frossard observed in Numismatist: "To judge by the catalogue, compiled by E. Mason, Jr., the sale will be one of the most attractive of the season...The American series of coins presents for the purchase of which the most lively competition will take place, and the Numismatic books alone would have been worthy of a separate catalogue." Lots 905-918 comprised coin and medal hubs and dies, including those for United States coins ranging from half cent to half eagle. In this copy, according to the ink annotations, lot 905, a 1794 Wilson Peale hub, sold for $1.00; lot 906, two hubs for a 1799 Washington medal, brought $5.25; lot 907, a 1797 John Adams hub, is marked "out"; lot 908 a Letter Foundry of Philadelphia hub, went for 25¢; and lot 918, two Jackson medal hubs, sold for 25¢. 737 Macallister, J. G. & Raymond, Wayte. THE HETHERINGTON COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES COINS. June 10, 1933. Original card covers. Very fine. (25.00)

Seldom offered. A historically significant sale featuring "Mint Marked" coins, upon which the cataloguers comment: "We offer in this catalogue the greater part of the Collection of Mr. John J. Hetherington, West Chester, Pa., who was especially interested in the coins of the branch mints. Many of the great rarities in the mint-marked series are missing because they were never available in satisfactory condition. The rarity of mint-marked coins cannot be judged by the listing reports of the number coined because, in many about 10 or 15 from some mints, very few were paid any attention to them, and therefore did not appear in the records of issue. As a result, mint-marked coins are nearly all dead when in unaltered condition, and a number of reverse are not known at all date. With the exception of the early years of the $1 Mint Half-Dollar, nearly all the mint-marked coin collection are in unaltered condition, and the recreational opportunity for collectors to improve their present specimens and to fill in missing dates."
